OUTLINES.

The death of one midshipman Goldthwait, Lieutenant Goodrich and six and the terrible injury of 13 men was the results of a powerful explosion in the turret of the new battleship Georgia, while at target practice yesterday forenoon off the Massachusetts coast. ——In a letter to Ambrose Scharfenberg, a Brooklyn boy, President Roosevelt complimented him upon winning the trophy offered for rifle practice by the public schools of Brooklyn; the President urges rifle practice in public schools, declaring that in the event fo war the National defense depends on men who can shoot. ——The trial of 17 men from Anson county, charged with the lynching of John V. Johnson near Wadesboro, was begun at Monroe yesterday before Judge Peebles; the court overruled a motion to quash the indictment and also a plea of abatement, and the taking of evidence is progressing. ——At Dallas, Texas, yesterday the Federal Court refused to turn over to a State Court receiver the affairs of the Waters-Pierce Oil Co. ——At Des Moines, Iowa, yesterday the president of the Rock Island Railroad, declared that his company would send no more lobbyists to influence the Legislature or Congress. ——Near Greensboro, N. C., yesterday, eleven persons were injured by the derailment of a train running 35 miles an hour on the Southern Railway. ——The Greek consul general at New York has complained to the State Department at Washington that a mob at Roanoke, Va., attacked and demolished several Greek restaurants and 150 Greeks were in danger of vengeance from rioters; the State Department conferred with Governor Swanson, who gave assurance that the Greek will be protected if troops had to be called out. ——New York markets: Money on call firmer 2 3-4 to 4 per cent.; ruling rate 3 3-4, closing bid 2 1-3, offered at 3; spot cotton 5 points higher, closing steady at 12.85; flour quiet and barely steady; wheat weak, No. 2 red 97 1-8 elevator; corn easy, No. 2 62 elevator; oats steady, mixed 47 1-2; turpentine quiet; rosin steady.

If former Congressman Blackburn is not sawing wood, what is it that he is doing, that doesn't make any noise at all?

Says the Washington Star: "Judge Parker is almost as tenacious of some of his opinions as Bryan himself." Still that does not justify Col. Roosevelt for zig-zag-ing in some of his opinions.

When Vice President Fairbanks jumped into Yellowstone lake and saved that pretty waitress, probably he didn't stop to think that women do not vote except in a hand-primary at an ice cream festival.

"The chorus girls will soon return from their Summer vacations," says a New York paper. If some of them are missing, however, theatrical managers will hike right out and go to searching the millionaire Johnnies.

Some people would unwittingly make the Federal government unpopular by having it own railroads and corporations and be compelled to stand for their management by politicians that may or may not have brains enough to grease a gimlet.

Some people demand that conservatives should be brought to the front in politics and then when the conservatives are trotted out, the same people wonder what kind of trick is trying to be worked off on an unsuspecting public.

Judging from Mr. Harriman's statement, the Inter-State Commerce Commission is somewhat inaccurate and shiftless, but if the verdict is to be brought in on some of the newspaper pictures of Mr. Harriman, there's no use for the prosecution to present any evidence.

"Gasolene goes off," is the caption of a newspaper dispatch from Boston. People who have to buy gasolene should be reminded that gasolene didn't go off in price, but did go off in the tank when somebody struck a match within the prescribed proximity of ignition.

An article in the Washington Star states that the descendants of Italian immigrants become good citizens in the second generation. That seems to be doing better than some other people whose descendants are "undesirable citizens" after about a dozen generations.

General Sherman made a very famous observation that expressed the idea of what war is. However, lots of folks know that war is not the only thing that is what the General called it. For instance, the thirty-five rich corporationists sent to jail by that Ohio judge during the hot weather have a right to think that the jail is also the same as war.

FINISH LISTS TO-DAY

Countp Board Equalization Will Take Up Wilmington Township Values.

COMMITTEE TO BEACH

Will Go .Over .All .Assessments of Property There—Persons Who Have a Kick Invited to Appear This Morning.

Unless a longer time is consumed in going over the returns from Wilmington township than is anticipated, the Couty Board of Equalization will complete its quadriennial labors today. Two sessions of the Board were held yesterday—from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M., and from 3 P. M. until after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The valuations in Harnett township, with the exception of Wrightsville Beach were gone over and equalized as far as possible. There was much difficulty in arriving at the assessments on the beach from the nature of the property, and it was at length decided to disregard all former efforts along this line and to proceed in a body to Wrightsville and have a personal inspection of each lot, so that all property may be listed for taxation equally and after probably visit the beach, with this end in view the latter part of the week, or perhaps earlier.

Today the returns by the assessors for the city of Wilmington will be gone over and all property owners who have complaints to make of assessments are invited to to make them today or "forever hold their peace," as one member of the Board expressed it yesterday. The assessments in Wilmington have been made very closely and intelligently, and it is expected that good headway can be made . From the blockings and compact form of the property in the city the work of going over the list will not be near so difficult as passing upon valuations in the country. It is expected to complete the lists from Wilmington by this afternoon and to adjourn sine die.

Harnett township values were considered yesterday and a longer session than usual was held in order that Wilmington township may be taken up first thing this morning. The following are the changes made from the returns as made by the assessors:

E. Poezolt, 100 acres, from $500 to $700.

Thos. Gillespie, tract of land, from $800 to $1,000.

Jas. L. Gorman, tract of land, from $550 to $700.

H. C. Irwin, cottage on Wrightsville, Beach, from $500 to $600.

Mrs. S. Kenan, seven and a half acres of city rock quarry tract, increased from $500 to $1,000.

F. A. Lord, cottage on beach, from $800 to $1,200.

P. Q. Moore, cottage on beach, from $1,100 to $1,200.

A. O. McEachern, valuation of dairy herd, reduced from $4,200 to $2,800.

Among the decreases made were the following: A. H. Yopp, 17 1-2 acres, from $600 to $500. Geo. O. Gaylord, property on Wrightsville Sound, from $2,300 to $2,000. J. M. Walker, property on Wrightsville, from $900 to $800. The Goodman cottage from $1,300 to $1,100. James F. Post, property on Wrightsville, from $600 to $400.

At the afternoon session of the Board the following changes were made: J. F. Mann, reduced from $1,500 to $1,200. Oscar Pearsall, 280 acres, increased from $5,000 to $6,500. S. W. Sanders, Summer Rest place, deceased from $1,250 to $1,000. Frank Western, decreased from $500 to $250. G. W. Westbrook, Wrightsville Sound place, $2,700 to $3,000. Mrs. M. G. Walker, from $4,000 to $4,500.

Moonlight Excursion.

A delightful excursion by moonlight is promised by Bladen Street M. E. Church on the steamer Wilmington for Friday night of this week. The boat leaves at 8 o'clock and a three-hour run will be enjoyed for the small sum of 25 cents for the round trip. There will be music and refreshments with other entertaining features.

Child Injured Yesterday.

While swinging to the back of a cart near her home at Sixth and Queen streets yesterday afternoon a little daughter of Mr. Chas. Brokenhagen fell backward and in some way one of the wheels of the vehicle passed over the child's leg, crushing it badly. A physician was summoned and gave the little girl the required attention.

STEREOPTICON LECTURE

Address by Dr. F. L. Stevens, of A. & M. College, Feature, of Farmers' Institute to Be Held in New Hanover August 8th.

A strong feature of the institute to be given in the Court House here on August 8th, under the auspices of the State Board of Agriculture, will be an illustrated stereopticon lecture at night, by Prof. F. L. Stevens, of the Agricultural and Mechanical College at Raleigh. This lecture will appeal especially to energetic farmers and it will likewise be interesting to ladies and children. It will be entirely without charge, and all are most cordially invited to be present.

Dr. Stevens will discuss many phases of agricultural problems, such as plant improvement, breeding, selection, cross-breeding of plants, protection of plants from their enemies, diseases and insects; the various methods of plant culture and propagation, tools to be used, and the method of using them; the economy of farm labor, and the proper improvement of tools. This lecture is to be illustrated by a large selection of beautiful lantern slides, which will be exhibited on an eight-foot screen in the lecture hall. The lecture should be interesting, instructive and profitable to all farmers, and also to the students, teachers and to the farmers' wives and children.

The Institute for women conductedducted during the the day in connection with the regular Institute for Farmers, will also be an interesting feature and it is hoped to have a large attendance on that day. Among the subjects to be discussed at the Institute for women will be the farm fruit garden, the farm vegetable garden, farm poultry, butter making, beautifying home surroundings, home conveniences, literature for the farm home, home making, nursing, cooking meats, vegetables, etc., bread making, etc. If sufficient interest is manifested in the woman's branch of this work it will be continued each year in connection with the regular institute for farmers.

IMPUDENT NEGRO, THIS.

Conduct in Justice Furlong's Court Cost Him Sixty Days.

Jim Sanders, a young railroad negro, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff W. H. Cox, in the alley across from the Market house, charged with a violent assault with his fist upon Hattie Davis, who swore out a warrant for him before Justice Furlong. When Sanders was brought into court he was in an ugly mood and made some impudent remarks to the trial justice whereupon he was ordered to jail for 30 days for contempt of court. The negro still did not desist from his impudent language and was told that he would be given another 30 days if he didn't dry up. He told the magistrate that he didn't care if he got six months. Justice Furlong added another 30 days to the sentence and he was fined 10 and costs for the assault upon the colored woman. He was escorted to jail by Deputy Cox and continued to act ugly, hanging back from the officer and making himself generally disagreeable. Sixty days incubation in the county jail will do him a world of good.

About the Rescue Home.

While heartily in sympathy with any movement looking to the uplift of fallen humankind, Adjutant Yates, of the local Salvation Army corps, desires to correct an erroneous impression that has gone abroad that the Rescue Home, on Church street, is conducted under the auspices of the Salvation Army. The local post has no connection whatever with the institution, which is understood to be in charge of those who have recently established the sect known as the "Unknown Tongue," in this city. The Salvation Army maintains a home of this kind North, but none in Wilmington.

Standing of the Clubs.

The Star is glad to have its attention called by President J. E. Smith, of the City Baseball League, to an error which occurred in the standing of the clubs as printed in the Star Sunday. The Y. M. C. A. has a straight record of seven games with 1000 per cent., while the Monarchs come next with three won and four lost, percentage .425; Giants, won three and lost five, percentage. 375; Rattlers, won two and lost six, percentage, .250. The standing will be given correctly in next Sunday's paper.

Market Street Sunday School.

Market Street M. E. Sunday School will have its annual excursion to Carolina Beach on the steamer Wilmington on Thursday of this week. There will be two trips of the boat at 9:15 A. M. and 2:30 P. M. and a cordial invitation is extended to all friends to come and enjoy the day by the ocean. The fare for the round trip will be only 25 cents. There will be music and refreshments.

GLENN ON SITUATION

Addresses Letter to Superior Court Judges of The State on Railroad Question.

EMPLOYS SPECIAL COUNSEL

Aycock, Justice and Ryan Will Assist Solicitor in Prosecution of Criminal Cases Against Southern Ry. in Rate Controversy.

(Special Star Telegram).

Raleigh, July 15.—Governor Glenn announces the retention of Chas. B. Aycock, Speaker E. J. Justice and S. G. Ryan of Raleigh, as special counsel to assist Solicitor Armisted Jones in the prosecution of the Southern Railroad Company for selling tickets at more than the 2 1-4 cent rate as prescribed by the recent act of the General Assembly. The Governor gave out an interview this afternoon in which he heartily approved the action of Judge Long and says a careful investigation of the situation shows a great wrong is done the State by the Railroad Company and that he has felt it his duty to address letters to all judges of the Superior Court in the State in which he reviews the the situation and asks that they properly instruct the grand juries so that bills will be returned in their courts similar to these instituted in Wade. He tells them he does not want the roads mulchted in costs and exponses of such litigation but wants enough cases instituted to test every phase of the situation in the interest of the people.

He takes the ground that the railroads should all have done as some have, and given the new law a fair test. He says he had assured all of them if this were done and the rate was found to be anything like ruinous to business he would call a special session of the Legislature giving a rate that was fair. He says he desires no conflict between the State and Federal Courts and that there can be none if the plain letter of the law is followed in indictments he directs.

He says he will raise the constitutionality of the act and the right of the Federal judge to abrogate it before declaring it unconstitutional.

Additional true bills were returned today against W. A. Pleasants, agent at Morrisville and J. A. Weathers, of Garner. The plan is to issue a special subpoena for Green tomorrow.

(By Associated Press.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 15.—An additional indictment was found today by the Wake county grand jury against the Southern Railway ticket agent for selling tickets at a rate in excess of two and one-quarter cents per mile, in violation of the State law which makes such sale a misdemeanor. There are two indictments against W. A. Pleasant, at Morrisville, and one against J. D. Weathers, of Garner, six miles from Raleigh. No action has been yet taken on the indictment against T. E. Green, the ticket agent here. The State has retained to assist the solicitor in the cases ex-Governor C. B. Aycock, E. J. Justice, speaker of the house of representatives, and Mr. S. G. Ryan, of Raleigh. This indicates that the case will be pushed despite the injunction granted the railroads by Judge Pritchard, of the Federal court.

Raleigh, July 15.—Governor Glenn tonight announced that every judge and solicitor in North Carolina he had written a letter, calling attention to the fact that the railroad rate law is daily violated by the Southern Railway and the Atlantic Coast Line, that its agents are responsible officials and should be indicted and prosecuted criminally. He declared this law effective since the first of July and that the Circuit Court of the United States has no right to interfere by injunction in criminal cases in the State courts, and that Judge Pritchard is in error in granting the injunction he did before finding that the legislative act is unconstitutional and confiscatory of property.

Trainman's Leg Cut Off.

Prince Moses, a middle-aged colored man employed as a brakeman on the Seaboard Air Line freight train running between Wilmington and Hamlet, had his left leg cut off between the ankle and knee near Brinkley's yesterday morning while the train was bound out of Wilmington. The negro fell or was caught between the cars in some way and the leg was bruised off. He was placed on an engine and brought to Wilmington where he was transferred to the James Walker Memorial Hospital. He may die as the result of the injury.

DROWNED FROM VESSEL

Body of Second Mate Gillette, of the Schooner Benj. F. Poole Picked Up in River Yesterday Afternoon—Missing Since Sat.

Second Mate Gillette, of the American schooner Benjamin F. Poole, Captain Rogers, which is receiving a cargo of cross-ties from Flynn & Co., at the old Hall & Pearsall wharf, near the Carolina Central depot, was drowned Saturday night between 10 and 11 o'clock from a lighter lying alongside the vessel. His body was recovered yesterday afternoon across the river opposite the Cape Fear lumber mill, further up the stream, by the crew of the tug E. K. Bishop, of the Angola Lumber Company, which was passing in the vicinity. Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, was notified, but as he is powerless to hold an inquest without an affidavit of some interested party, according to several rulings of the County Commissioners, it cannot be said whether there was foul play in the case or not. The body, although in the water but two days, was in a badly decomposed state and had to be buried at once in the county burying ground.

Gillette is from Boston and about 30 years of age. Little is known of him by the captain or any of his ship mates. Saturday night he had shore leave and came up town and made several purchases. According to the testimony of those on board the vessel he came aboard between 9 and 10 o'clock and put away several packages but went out again and was later seen seated on a lighter near the vessel as if he had come out to get some fresh air. About 11 o'clock the first mate heard a splash and went on deck to see what was the trouble but there was nothing in sight nor could any further sound be heard. When the second mate failed to return to the vessel Sunday morning, it was known that the man had been drowned and all possible search was made for the body, but without avail. It was found by the crew of the Bishop yesterday afternoon floating in the water on the west side of the stream and was towed to the dock where it was viewed by the coroner and prepared for burial. Dr. Bell was unable to account for the badly decomposed state of the body from the length of the time it was in the water. Under the ruling of the Commissioners nothing more than a view of the body could be had.

SUBMITS TO MANSLAUGHTER.

Young Rowden Black Pleads Mercy of Court.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, July 15.—After empanelling a jury to try young Rowden Black, of Fayetteville, in the Superior Court here this afternoon for killing Marshall Rowland, arraignment being for his life, the prisoner submitted to manslaughter and left the sentence to the mercy of the judge. Chief of Police J. H. Benton, of Fayetteville and Capt. J. Q. Godard were examined as to the character of the young man, saying it was good. Judge Long passed sentence.

Drills for Jamestown Exposition.

The Wilmington Light Infantry drills, which have been suspended during the Summer, will be resumed tonight, in anticipation of the forthcoming encampment of the National Gaurd at the Jamestown Exposition. Capt. Robertson hopes to go to the Exposition with full ranks and in good shape, and to that end has ordered drills to be held Tuesday and Friday night of each week until it is time for the troops to move on Norfolk. The dates of the encampment are August 12th to 16th, inclusive.

The Seminole Returning.

The United States Revenue Cutter Seminole, preivously reported off Frying Pan upon her return from New York where she did patrol duty for the yacht races, is expected in port today or tomorrow. Later it is expected she will return North for her annual overhauling and to have wireless installed on board. The Seminole convoyed the Onandaga down the coast with the new cutter Pamlico for the Newbern station in tow.

Concerts at Lumina.

In spite of the rain and threatening weather a goodly number of people were at Lumina Sunday afternoon, and evening to hear the concerts by the full Kneissel's Orchestra. The music was much enjoyed, the change of position of the music to the centre of the ball room floor being especially delightful.

MANY BEFORE MAYOR

A ROUND-UP OF VAGRANTS

Several Colored Females Will Promote Agriculture at County Farm—Negro Who Gave Policeman Nichols Much Trouble.

Twenty-two defendants faced the Mayor at the Monday session of the municipal court yesterday. The police had been quite active over Saturday night and colored female vagrants largely predominated in the prisoner's box. Officers Huggins, Appleberry and Brinkley had been assigned to the special duty of rading several alleys in the northern part of the city and from the complexion of the penitents who wore anxious countenances, they had done their work well. They were given trial in blocks of five, the Mayor exhibiting a package of letters from the employers of several of them. The cases of these were examined separately, three or four were discharged while others were given terms of 30 days on the roads. Among those who were handed such packages by the Mayor were Amanda Norman, Ella Evans, Rachel Smith, Mary Mallett and Amelia Jewett. The others were released with an admonition as to the company they should keep in the future.

Aside from the vagrants the star defendant was John Rhodes, an impudent looking negro against whom Officre S. A. Nichols lodged a multiplicity of charges—engaging in an affray, disorderly conduct, resisting an officer and carrying a concealed weapon. Rhodes was mixed up with a crowd of negroes who had a free for all fight at Second and Orange streets Saturday night. Three of the number got away but Officer Nichols collared Rhodes, who was drunk and fought like a demon. The officer broke the wrist strap of his club and was having his hands full when a white man came up and assisted him. The charges of disorderly conduct and engaging in an affray were consolidated and he was given 30 days on the roads. He was bound to the Superior Court on the charge of resisting the officer. The case of carrying a concealed weapon was left open for witnesses. When the Mayor pronounced sentence on Rhodes a scowl overspread his countenance and he impudently dropped into his seat saying "I'll take a 'repeal from dat judg-ment." The Mayor told him "all right, to "repeal'."

Joe Day, drunk and disorderly, was fined $10 and costs.

Thos. Williams, disorderly conduct was given 30 days on the roads, he also took a "repeal." Charles Fisher, an old offender had served so much time on the roads that the Mayor stated he would try him on a new tack. He was fined $5 and costs. The other cases yesterday were not of interest.

NOVEL BANKING IDEA.

Money Saving Devices are Offered by Carolina Savings & Trust.

The Carolina Savings and Trust Company, always alive to the encouragement of systematic saving by the small as well as the large investors, has just received for gratuitous distribution exceedingly handsome little banks which are very convenient for acquiring the habit of "taking care of the pennies and letting the dollars take care of themselves." The banks are round in form, and make a neat little ornament for desk, mantel or bureau, always a constant reminder that it is not what one makes that counts, but what he or she saves, and pointing the way to that saving. The bank has separate receptacles for nickles, dimes, quarters or even larger denominations, and the edges are so milled that the contents of the bank are easily ascertainable at any moment. Cashier Holmes Davis would be glad to explain this little device to any person who will call at the bank and receive one of them after hearing the plan made plain.

Characteristic Horse Trade.

Alleging that a mule which he received in a trade for a good horse was so old that he could not eat ordinary forage and that his previous owner had kept life in his carcass by feeding him cooked cornbread, after it had been soaked in water, Thos. McMillan, a negro from the country, yesterday had Jas. Ratley, white, of Wilmington, before Justice Bornemann upon a civil procedure to recover the horse which he had previously owned. The trial was amusing in the extreme and finally resulted in a compromise by which McMillan paid the costs and Ratley agreed to return the horse, taking the mule back.

MR. KITCHIN STANDS WITH JUDGE LONG.

In a recent speech in Union county Congressman W. W. Kitchin, of Roxboro, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, stated at length his position on the issues and questions claiming public attention and solution. He expressed his views plainly and both his friends and opponents must agree that he does not leave them in any doubt as to where he stands. He adheres in a general way to orthodox Democratic doctrines and most everybody knows what that means. It is not necessary, therefore, to attempt to repeat them here. However, Mr. Kitchin had to take cognizance of "new matter," as the lawyers would say, and toe the mark as to that. Reference is had to the recent litigation in the Federal Court and the later conflict between the Federal and State courts over railroad legislation, and it is a mater of general interest how Mr. Kitchin stands on that matter. Here is what he said about it:

"In reference to the suits in the Federal Court over our rate act, while we must patiently abide their determination, believing that the State's attorneys will, so far as attorneys can, protect the State's interest, yet in my judgment under the sound doctrine announced in Fitts vs. McGhee, the Court erred in not dismissing the actions, and I hope the Supreme Court, if they reach that court, will so find. If the officials of the State can be so enjoined in this manner in such a matter by the equity powers of the Federal Courts instead of compelling the railroads to resort to their legal remedies, how long will it be before some Federal judge, at the instance of some railroad company, will assume to restrain some Speaker of the House from approving an act of controverted merit or even restrain the Legislature itself from considering a bill which the railroad opposes?

"In my judgment the law officers of the State ought to indict those who violate our rate act, and let the Courts of law decide the controversy. I suppose no man will contend that it is proper to restrain the officers of our Criminal Courts. They should perform their duty under the law, and if any effort is made to restrain them they should resist it by every known legal means, and the State of North Carolina will sustain them and call them blessed. The dignity of the State is affected and the State, through its officers should act. It is folly to expect a private individual to raise the issue with the Federal Court. Individuals may be protected by their rebate slips, and no one man wishes to incur the trouble and expense which properly belongs to all the people in such a matter.

"I want to commend in the highest terms the charge of Judge Long to the Wake grand jury. He has done well as an able, patriotic and fearless judge, determined by lawful means to uphold the honor and dignity if the State, and to punish those who violate her criminal laws. All honor to him."

The Star is taking no sides between the distinguished gentlemen seeking the Democratic nomination for Governor, but it is not out of the way to let our readers know what they are saying and doing. This is one reason for giving here a portion of the views of Mr. Kitchin.

CANAL MANAGEMENT RADICALLY ALTERED.

In view of the fact that there have been so many changes in management and policy in the construction of the Panama canal it will be interesting to state that, according to the Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, some notable orders have just been issued by President Roosevelt. The orders have effected a radical revolution in Isthmian Canal affairs, forshadowed for a good while past, but heretofore held back until the excitement over the new plans could subside. The orders remove the last vestiges of the Shonts regime with its high salaries established in the heyday of enthusiasm for "making the dirt fly." They signify that the canal has settled down to a period of leisurely, steady, building on established War Department methods with no spectacular effects, but with regular modes of ascertaining and recording the advance made and the cost of doing the work. The orders are quite as remarkable for what they do not say as for what they state in so many words, and one not conversant with the past history of canal management would hardly suspect that there had quietly been wrought a complete transformation in management.

The first order, dated July 1, although not given out until a day or two ago, is very brief, but all the more notable. It says: "On and after July 1, 1907, the purchase of materials and supplies for the Isthmian Canal Commission shall be transferred to the supervision of the chief of engineers of the army, who shall maintain a purchasing department in the offices of the Isthmian Canal Commission in Washington. Officers of the United States shall draw no additional compensation for services rendered in connection with the purchasing department of the Isthmian Canal Commission." This at one blow destroys the great mechanism for purchasing which Mr. Shonts had erected, and puts canal supplies on the same basis as all others that are wanted for river and harbor construction and other work of like kind. The bids will be made as usual, and it is not expected that there will be any perceptible difference to contractors in the operation of the machinery as compared with the system which existed under Mr. Shonts. It may be that the army engineers throughout the conutry who have been in the habit of buying supplies under contract for the department will be called upon to purchase also for the Isthmian Canal, but this, if adopted, will be merely a change in detail. Army officers will not even draw upon Isthmian Canal funds, being paid like other army officers out of army appropriations.

Quite as important as this provision, however, were the others in the President's order, but this is enough to show that there has been another change in canal digging.

KNOTTY PROBLEM.

The New York Financial and Commercial Chronicle in a long and interesting editorial says:

"The Inter-State Commerce Commission has just rendered a decision in a case involving some novel features. The facts are worth narrating because they show how difficult and complex is the matter of rate-making by the railroads. The powers and functions of the Interstate Commerce Commission having been so greatly extended, that body is now rendering decisions in very quick order, and the rulings made by it come in thick and fast. We have taken the pains to scrutinize quite carefully these decisions and rulings, and the one impression that they leave on the mind is the inherent complexity of this whole subject of railroad tariffs and schedules."

The perplexing decision was where one railroad had to add 5 cents per hundred pounds to its freight rate to San Francisco in order to permit another road to compete with it. In other words, the 5 cents was added in order to equalize the freight charges to a competing point, so shippers could take their choice of routes and that one road would not crowd the others out of competition by getting all the freights. One road had to ferry its freight across the bay in order to reach San Francisco, while the other road's track ran into the city and delivered its freight at the wharves without change of cars. It was the road which had the advantage which was compelled to charge the additional 5 cents in order to give the other road an equal showing. The Commission decided that this adjustment of the freight schedules was in the interest of the public welfare, in that it was the only method by which competition could be maintained.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The downright crystallinity and unadulterated limpidity of Houston's justly renowned Buffalo bayou make the Potomac or James look like the Chicago river.—Houston Post.

—The Honorable John S. Wise says that the sole remaining difference between President Roosevelt and Mr. Bryan is one of "antecedents." Well, that is a difference that has always counted for considerable in Old Virginia.—Providence Tribune.

—The Toledo judge who has sentenced twenty-three business men to jail for violating the anti-trust laws is a judicial anachronism. This is no way to demolish trusts and combinations. He should have appointed receivers to "bring the business into conformity with the law." Doesn't Judge Morris read the Washington dispatches?—New York World.

—Informing its readers that "'God Will Vindicate' is the inscription on the Jefferson Davis Mounment," the Boston Herald adds, "Hardly." We infer that our esteem contemporary is either in possession of direct advices or has formed the idea of supervising the matter itself. However, let us not give up hope yet.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

—If His Excellency Keiroku Tsuzuki, Japanese ambassador to The Hague conference, is correct, the Hochi Shimbun went through an unnecessary formality in "withdrawing" the interview with Admiral Sakamoto it printed the other day, in which severe things were said of American naval officers. According to His Excellency, who has been interviewed to very reasonable effects by The New York Herald's representative at The Hague, there is no such person as Admiral Sakamoto in Japan. The Hochi was evidently engaged in a bit of interview faking.—Charleston Post.

—If the "unwritten law" had the support of public sentiment and of the public conscience it would soon become the written law. But the fact that there never has been a serious suggestion of such a thing shows that the so-called "unwritten law" has no support in enlightened public sentiment. It is, indeed, monstrous that the law of the land is to be set aside or disannulled by that which is no law, but only a popular phrase which may be applied to protect criminals. In point of fact, the "unwritten law" has already been stretched until it is scarcely to be recognized.—Baltimore Sun.

TWINKLINGS.

—"How did you know it was time to get up?" "The baby had gone to sleep."—Brooklyn Life.

—"Screechem was a barker in a circus once, wasn't he?" "Yes." "When did he give up this line of continuous talk?" "When he married."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—Hawley—"So her father objected to your suit, eh?" Sapleigh—"Oh, no, me clothes were perfectly satisfactowy, It was me he objected to, doncher know."—Chicago Daily News.

—What'd She Mean?—He—"That handsome girl over there made a fool of me two years ago." She—"I felt sure that something happened in your past life that you had never got over."—Tit-Bits.

—Dusty Rhoades—What did Percy say when the train crew chucked him off the box car? Weary Willie—Told them to be careful how they handled perishable freight.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

—An Indignant Refutation.—"You have no art in your country!" exclaimed the European superciliously. "Haven't, eh!" answered Mr. Cumrox, reaching for his checkbook. "Why for the past five years we have been buying old masters faster than you fellows can paint 'em."—Washington Star.

—"Now that you've come in for a little money," said Zimmerman, "I hope you'll pay me what you owe me." "Let's see," said Burroughs. "Your name's 'Zimmerman,' isn't it? Sorry, old man, but I'm paying off all my creditors in alphabetical order."—Philadelphia Press.

—Assuming Credit.—"What we want," said the radical economist, "is government ownership of everything." "My dear sir," answered Mr. Dustin Stax, "it is the highest patriotism that causes some of us monopolists to bear our burdens as we do. Think of concentrating on the government the scrutiny and criticism to which corporations are now subjected."—Washington Star.

A New Back for an Old One—How it Is Done in Wilmington.

The back ache at times with a dull, indescriable feeling, making you weary and restless; piiecing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys and again the loins are so lame to stoop in agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause Exchange the bad back for naw and stronger one. Follow the example of this Wilmington ctitizen.

R. F. Rowan, clerk with L. W. Davis' Clothing House, residing on Castle street, between Sixth and Seventh, Wilmington, N. C., says: "I strained myself lifting a heavy box, suffered great pain across my back for a long time. I used plasters and liniments, but they did me no good. I could hardly stand up straight, my back was so weak. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our newspapers I went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I felt better the next day and continued using them according to directions and my back regained its old strength. I was simply surprised at the result. I will gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills every time for backache."

Knew Denmark, but Not Hamlet.

The Literary Lady—Do you think Hamlet was insane or merely assuming to be?

The Victim—I beg your pardon. I didn't catch the name.

The Lady—Hamlet.

The Lady—I'm talking of Hamlet, Prince of Denmark.

The Victim—To be sure. Hamlet, Prince of Denmark. I know a lot of those Denmark princes, but I don't seem to place Ham. By the way, Denmark's getting to be quite a town. They tell me they have two regular trains running there now, one of them a freight. And I heard just the other day that eastern capital had secured an option on the building lot across the street from the livery stable for a clothespin factory. Denmark is certainly looking up.

Whereat the victim smiles.—Kansas City Independent.

Too Flippant.

The specialist surgeon, hot with indignation, exclaimed, "No, I will not take her case. There must be a limit to even a woman's flippancy."

"Why, Dr. ——, what do you mean?" asked the family doctor mildly. "I have always found Mrs. Jones a lady in every way."

"Perhaps," answered the specialist surgeon, more calmly, but with dry severity. "She asked me why a surgeon was like a hen. And when I gave it up, what do you think she said?"

"I give it up, too," said the family doctor.

"Because his motto is always 'Cut-cut-cut, ah, cut.' Wasn't that the limit?"

"And that woman has been under the knife three times," reflected the family doctor. "I'll take her to Dr. Smith. He has a sense of humor."

And now there is a marked coolness between the specialist surgeon and the family doctor.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Bit Too Realistic.

Some amateurs in a provincial town gave a theatrical performance. Just before the curtain went up the star actor took the manager aside and said to him:

"Now, look here! I don't propose to drink water instead of wine in the drinking scene in the second act. I want wine—genuine wine. The unities must be preserved. We want to make this play as realistic as possible."

"Oh, you want champagne at 15 shillings a bottle, do you?"

"Yes, sir. Everything must be realistic."

"All right. In the second act you shall have real wine, and when you take poison in the last act you shall have some real poison. I'll see that you don't complain of the play not being realistic enough. How does prussic acid strike you?'—London Tit-Bits.

Writing as a Fine Art.

In a letter written by the late Lafcadio Hearn to his friend, the musical critic, H. E. Krehbiel, the author says: "Let me dwell upon an art principle. Both you and I have a trade—journalism. We have also an art—authorship. The same system of labor cannot be applied to the one as to the other without unfortunate results. Let the trade be performed as mechanically as is consistent with preservation of one's reputation as a good workman. But when it comes to writing a durable thing—a book or a brochure—every line ought to be written at least twice, if possible, three times. In the very act of copying new ideas of grace, force and harmony will make themselves manifest. Without this, I will venture to say, fine literary execution is impossible."

The "Book of Sports."

The "Book of Sports" was a proclamation by James I., who in this publication in 1618 signified to his people the royal pleasure with regard to what sports, games and amusements might be practiced on Sunday. The king intimated that "no lawful recreation should be barred on that day to his good people." The sports forbidden on Sundays were bear and bull fighting, bowling and interludes. Those who did not attend church were not allowed to join in the sports, and no one could go out of his parish. The amusements allowed were dancing, archery, leaping, vaulting, May games, Whitsun ales and the setting up of May poles.

Striking a Fish.

The secret of striking a fish, especially a trout, which bites quickly, whether in brook, river or lake, is to give a sharp upturn of the wrist. This will move the rod or bait only two or three inches and will not jerk it from the water. If you miss the fish will follow the few inches, not being frightened, and in the majority of cases will be hooked at once. The quick jerking of the bait from the water almost invariably scares a trout—result, a dark streak disappearing down the stream.

If Glasses Get Stuck.

When two glasses get stuck, one inside the other, an unfailing remedy for separating them is to plunge them upright into some hot water for a quarter of a minute or thereabouts. Care must be taken that no water gets into either glass. The explanation is that the heat expands the outer glass before it has time to penetrate and expand the one inside.

Dropped.

"Why does Miss Elder always drop her eyes when she meets you?"

"If you will never give it away I will tell you. She drops her eyes because I saw her drop her teeth one day."

Eleven People Injured .Including Prominent Railroad Men.
(By Wire to the Morning Star).

Washington, July 15.—As the result of the derailment of three cars of a Northbound passenger train on the Southern Railway at Jamestown, North Carolina, near Greensboro, today eleven persons, mostly employes of the railroad were injured. According to an official statement issued by the railroad tonight the derailment was due to "tracks buckling under the dining car."

Among the injuried are: Francis H. Blewett, a passenger, Brooklyn, N. Y.; E. Torrey, superintendent of telegraph Mobile and Ohio Railroad, Jackson, Tenn.; E. W. Moore, supertendent M. & O. Railroad, Murphysboro, Ill.; W. L. Pierce, assistant superintendent Southern Railway, Strasburg, Va. The others, all train men, sustained minor bruises with the exception of Pullman Conductor F. C. Taylor, of Jacksonville, and dining Car Conductor F. E. Borry, of Charlotte.

The injuried were taken to Greensboro where they are being cared for by the Southern Railway Company's physicians.

The train was running about thirty-five miles an hour when the dining car, a Pullman car and a Mobile and Ohio Railway car were derailed. The train was delayed an hour.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Seattle, Wash., July 15.—What is called by Secretary Shaw one of the most notable meetings ever held in connection with a Christian Endeavor Convention, was that of the Japanese Endeavorers here yesterday. Hundreds of Japanese came to hear addresses in their own tongue on the progress of Christian Endeavor work, sing America's religious songs in Japanese and listen to the welcomes extended by American speakers.

Friendly relations between Japan and the United States were praised in addresses. Secretary Shaw told the Japanese that the Christian Endeavor Society plans to hold its convention in Japan in a few days.

Their Daughter Dead.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Batts, No. 904 Nixon street, have the symapthy of many friends in the death of their daughter, Mauverine Batts, aged four years, which occurred last night at 8:30 o'clock. The funeral will be conducted at 1 o'clock this afternoon from the residence by Rev. N. M. Watson and the remains will be taken on the Newbern train at 2:25 P. In a pistol duel on Washington street, Petersburg, Va., last night Jno. Wheelhouse was shot and instantly killed by his nephew, Richard Wheelhouse, who was, perhaps fatally wounded by his uncle. Seven shots in all were fired, one bullet entering the body of John Wheelhouse just above the heart. Richard Wheelhouse was wounded in the abdomen and also in the breast. An old grudge and family troubles are supposed to be the cause.

Light Lunches for Hot Days.

Summer time is the season when light refreshments of some kind are needed almost every day for little trips and outings—to entertain casual guests and for luncheon on days too warm for heavy foods.

There are many summer time biscuit and wafers baked by the National Biscuit Company and packed in packages that keep out all dampness and dust of travel and absolutely preserve the original oven freshness of the contents. Among the most popular of these dainties are Social Tea Biscuit. They are so appropriate for many different occasions that a few packages in the house prepares you to serve a light refreshment without a moment's notice.

Social Tea Biscuit are a real food, but so light and unusual that they tempt the appetite and make a welcome accompaniment to luncheon, desert or dinner—a social cup of tea or cooling beverage.

Always serve Social Tea Biscuit from the original package, because then you are sure that no dust or dampness has reached them and that you will enjoy all their original freshness of flavor.

Long Live The King.

is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quckly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Dunn, July 14: Dr. W. M. McNeill, the oldest physician of Harnett county, died Tuesday at his residence on the Cape Fear river at Dickenson He has been a practioner for 50 years and was useful and prominent.

—Asheville, July 14: It is stated here on reliable authority that Judge A. C. Avery, of Morganton, has been restrained by the Southern Railway Company as special counsel to represent that corporation before Standing Master Montgomery in the rate hearing and the taking of testimony.

—Maxton, July 14: Mr. J. C. Parish a local contractor, was awarded the contract for the new Methodist college a few days ago, and work will begin in a very short time. Maxton feels justly proud of this institution which will probably be completed and opened up next year and which will mean more for the growth of the place than anything else. Waterworks will be our next step of advance.

—Col. Allen Jordan, of Troy, died suddenly in the court house there at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. Col. Jordan was 78 years old and has been widely known as a lawyer and politivian for the past forty years. He practiced law for about fifty years. His wife died two years ago at the age of 84. His only daughter is the wife of Mr. I. M. Deaton, chief clerk in the office of the Collector of Internad Revenue in Raleigh.

—Maxton, July 14: Capt. Peter McRae, a well-to-do farmer of 73 years, died at his home, six miles south of Maxton, Thursday. The captain has been a resident of this section practically all of his life and was one of the oldest inhabitants of this section. Up to a year ago he was a very active man, and able to attend to business, but since that time his health has been on the wane. The interment was at the family cemetery, near the old home place on Friday.

—Waynesville, N. C., July 13: John Haynes, a white man who had been hurt and had been subpoenaed as a witness in a murder case, failed to appear. Dr. Sam Stringfield said that with careful driving the witness Hayes was able to attend court. Whereupon Judge Moore had an instanter capias issued, and sent a conveyance for him. Hayes made threats that he would sue Judge Moore for having him brought to court while he was hurt All the witnesses against the negro Stokes charged with murder, have disappeared and can not be found, so Stokes can not be tried at this term of court.

—Franklington, July 14: Mrs. W. C. Duke, wife of W. C. Duke, Sr., died Thursday at 4 o'clock in her 91st year. She was formerly Miss Prescella Percy and was married to Mr. Duke 24 years ago. Mr. Duke is in his 93rd year. Mrs. Duke was a member of Perry's Baptist Church for many years. The funeral services were held at her home, conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. B. Justice. The interement took place in the family burial ground. Her husband is very nearly blind and has the sympathy of our good people. The "Judge," as he was familiarly called, was surrounded by a number of friends and his four children (by a former wife), whose ages are remarkable, to-wit: Mrs. Hight, 70; Mrs. Merritt, 68; Miss Julia Ann Duke, 66; Mr. H. C. Duke, 64. Mr. H. C. Duke serving four years in the Confederate army. Mrs Duke had but one sister, Mrs. Wheeler, who is 85 years old.

—Philadelphia, July 14: Eugene Ferral, a member of the Charlotte Lodge of Elks, who started for this city to attend the Elks' Convention, was lost off the Southern Railway train No. 34 somewhere between Greensboro and Lynchburg. The seventeen other members of the delegation who reached here in safety are much distressed over the mystery that surrounds his disappearance, and Secretary Robert Simpson has sent telegrams to all the stations between Greensboro and Lynchburg in an endeavor to find him, but without result. Ferral who is a railway employe, was last seen by his friends just after the train left Greensboro. He was in the first class coach, having been unable to secure a berth, and J. R. Northey invited him to share his section, but Ferral declined. When the train reached Lynchburg it was found that the man was missing. His hat, coat and suit case were found on his seat, and in his coat pocket was his pocketbook, containing his railroad pass and a considerable sum of money.

A Wonderful Happening.

Men and Women Unanimous About It

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 15.—The cotton market was comparatively quiet today; sales being estimated at 200,000 bales. Fluctuations were irregular, with the close steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 10 points, July showing the maximum gain and the new crop generally unchanged to four points higher. The opening was steady at an advance of 2 points on August to a decline of 3 points, the improvement at the beginnig of the call being due to higher cables than expected, while later positions eased off, owing to continued weather over the week-end. Re-assuring cables were received as to the situation in Alexandria, where unsettled financial conditions were said to be the result of over-speculation in real estate, but the market here worked off during the early session to a net loss of about 3 to 4 points on the active months.

This was followed by a rally on the southwestern bull support and covering, accompanied by bullish private crop accounts from Texas and August advanced to a net gain of about 19 points on covering of shorts in the absence of offerings, while the new crop position sold some 7 to 9 points net higher. Realizing checked the advance and the market during the late session eased off from the bet under scattered offerings. Southern spot markets were generally unchanged as compared with Saturday. Weather reports during the day were considered generally favorable and favorable weekly report is expected from Washington tomorrow. There was hardly any business in July, but one sale was made as high as 11.75 or 30 points net higher. The close was at 11.55 bid.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 1,848 bales, against 2,726 last week and 5,835 last year. For the year 15,000 bales against 15,822 last week and 25,197 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 1,281 bales, against 2,607 last year, and at Houston 135 bales, against 261 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 12.85; middling 13.10; sales 4,500 bales. Futures opened and closed steady.

BAD EXPLOSION ON BATTLESHIP

Eight Men Killed and Thirteen Injured on New Warship Georgia.

POWDER CAUGHT ON FIRE

Ship Was Engaged at Target Practice Off Massachusetts Coast—Some of Officers and Men Were Terribly Maimed.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Boston, July 15.—By the explosion of a case of powder in the hands of a gunner in the after superimposed turret of the Battleship Georgia, in Massachusetts Bay today, eight men were killed and 13 injured. Not one of the persons in the turret escaped injury.

Dead: William J. Thatcher, chief turret captain, Wilmington, Del.

Failkner Goldthwaite, midshipman, Kentucky.

W. J. Burke, ordinary seaman, Quincy, Mass.

G. G. Hamilton, ordinary seaman, South Framingham, Mass.

Lieutenant Gasper Goodrich, New York.

William A. Fair ordinary seaman.

Injuried.

Midshipman, John T. Cruse, Nebraska.

Frank Schlapp, North Adams, Mass., boatswains mate, second class.

Charles Hassell, New York, gunnersmate, first class.

Orley Tagland, Richford, Minn., chief yeoman.

J. G. Thomas, ordinary seaman, Brooklyn, N. Y.

S. L. Rosenberger, ordinary seaman, Philadelphia.

Edward J. Walsh, ordinary seaman, Lynn, Mass.

John A. Bush ordinary seaman, New York.

John O. Maleck, ordinary seaman, Cleveland O.

L. O. Meeze, ordinary seaman, Berea, Ohio.

H. L. Gilbert, ordinary seaman, Southwick, Mass.

Charles L. Eich, ordinary seaman, Frankfort, Ind.

Three of the injured, Lieutenant Goodrich and Seaman Fair and Walsh were in a very critical condition when brought into the hospital and it was announced that their injuries were probably fatal.

Lieutenant Goodrich has undoubtedly lost thesight of both eyes and is terribly burned. Lieutenant Goodrich and Seaman Maleck jumped overboard immediately after the explosion with the apparent motive of ending the terrible suffering from their burns. Both of the men were quickly rescued by uninjured comrades.

The accident happened while the battleship was several miles off Provincetown and the men were engaged in target practice together with other vessels of the battleship squadron of the Atlantic fleet. The powder had just been taken from the ammunition hoist to load an 8-inch gun. It was seen to be burning and in an instant it exploded in the face of the loader of the gun. No damage was done to the vessel, as the powder was not confined, and early this evening under orders from Washington the Georgia sailed back to the target grounds of Provincetown. How the powder Became ignited is not yet known but the theory held at the navy yard is that it was set by a spark from the smoke stack of the warship. Immediately after the accident the Georgia headed for the Charlestown navy yard. There the dead and injuried were taken ashore, the wounded men being conveyed to the naval hospital at Chelsea.

The Georgia is one of battleships of the second division of the Atlantic fleet, which has been at target practice off Provincetown for the last two weeks. The Georgia is one of the newest battleships in the navy, having been in commission only about ten months. She is commanded by Richard McCrea.

The guns in the forward turrets had finished eight rounds of practice and the guns of the after turret had fired one round. Two cases, as the big 100 pound bags of powder are called, had just been sent up through the ammunition hoist and were in the arms of the loader. The loader stood at the breech of one of the 8-inch guns already to insert the charge. At this instant the turret was seen to be smoky and two men who stood near the loader saw a black spot on the bag indicating that the charge had ignited and was smuoldering. The loader discovered the spot at the same instant and threw himself forward on his face at the same time shouting a warning to his turret mates. The other men who had seen the spot were Eich and Hansell and they also threw themselves on the floor of the turret.

Before the other men in the turret could understand the loader's cry of warning there was a blinding flash as the burning powder exploded. Flames, smoke and nauseous gases filled the little superstructure in which more than a score of men were confined. As the powder was not confined there was no report nor did the vessel suffer any injury but every nook and cranny of the turret was filled with flame. The loader who was, of course nearest the powder was terribly burned as was every other man in the turret with the exception of Eich and Hansell who although scorched, escaped with injuries much less severe than the others.

Blinded by the smoke, choked by the gaseous fumes and maddened with pain the men screamed in agony. Some staggered blindly up the ladder to the hatchway in the top of the turret while others crept along the turret floor crying piteously for assistance.

Lieutenant Goodrich and Seaman Maleck became crazed, staggered up the iron ladder to the top of the turret and then threw themselves into the sea in a despairing effort to choose a death by drowning in preference to death by slow fire.

When the smoke of the burning powder had cleared away the shipmates of the unfortunate men rushed to their assistance and tenderly the suffering sailors were lifted out of the fire blackened turret and quickly conveyed to the ship's hospital where their burns were dressed by the surgeons. In the meantime Lieutenant Goodrich and Seaman Maleck had been rescued by a launch which was returning from an inspection of the target.

The surgical staff of the Georgia was soon reinforced by the surgeons of the other vessels in the fleet which had been informed of the accident and summoned to the scene.

A wireless telling the brief details of the accident was sent to the government wireless station on the highland of Cape Cod and thence overland to the Navy Department at Washington.

LEARN TO SHOOT IN CASE OF WAR

Marksmanship and Rifle Practise in Public Schools Urged By Roosevelt.

BROOKLYN BOY IS PRAISED

President Congratulates Him Upon Winning Trophy of Public School Athletic League—Defense of Nation Depends On Boys.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Oyster Bay, July 15.—President Roosevelt has put his hearty approval on public school rifle practice. In a letter of congratulation to Ambrose Scharfenberg, of Brooklyn, winner of the shooting trophy of the public Schools Athletic League, he takes occasion to encourage the system of rifle practice inaugurated by General George B. Wingate, retired. That the letter to Young Scharfenberg may have as far reaching influence as possible it was made public at the President's direction today. It is as follows:

"Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 13, 1907.

"My Dear Young Friends:

"I heartily congratulate you upon being declared by the public schools' athletic league to stand first in rifle shooting among all the boys of the high schools of New York city, who have tried during the last year. I am glad to see how well you have done in all the competitions in which you shot during the year, alike in the Whitney trophy competition, the individual match shoot at Creedmore, and the inter-scholarship match. Many a grown man who regards himself as a crack rifle shot would be proud of such a score.

"Your skill is a credit to you and also to your principal, your teacher, and to all connected with the manual training school which you attend, and I congratulate them all. Practice in rifle shooting is of value in developing not only muscles but nerves, steadiness and judgment under excitement. It is, therefore, of value to every man throughout his life..

"The public schools athletic league has done fine work for the city and for the country in introducing and promoting athletics and a love for manly sports in the public schools of New York, especially as the league most wisely allows no one to compete who is not up to the passing mark, both in studies and deportment. I am especially glad of what it has done in establishing instruction in dfile shooting. The United States has a small standing army. In time of war it must depend for defense upon hasty levies of volunteers and it a prime necessity that the volunteer should already know how to shoot, if he is to be of value as a soldier. In no modern war would it be possible effectively to train men to shoot during the brief period of preparation before the army takes the field. In consequence, the training must come in advance and the graduates from our schools and colleges should be thus trained so as to be good shots witth the military rifle.

When so trained they constitute a great addition to our National strength and great assurance for he peace of the country."

Des Moines, July 15.—At a luncheon tendered him today by Des Moines men, President Winchell, of the Rock Island Railroad, said that the Island road is out of politics and wil do away with its lobbies and lobbyists both in the state Legislatures and the National Congress.

John Sebastian, general traffic manager of the same road, who was entertained with President Winckell, said that the Rock Island will not reduce its passenger service on account of the two cent rate laws, but has done so and will improve it further.

ANSON LYNCHERS NOW BEING TRIED

SHERIFF BOGGAN A WITNESS

Tells Interesting Story and Positively Indentified at Least Four in the Party—His Daughter Also Testified—Victim White.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Monroe, N. C., July 15.—The trial of John Jones, charged with lynching John V. Johnson, in Anson county, a year ago, begun in the Superior Court today before Judge Peebles. There are seventeen persons indicted for the crime, but the case of Jones was selected by the solicitor, as it is understood to be the plan to try each of the prisoners separately.

At the opening of the trial a motion to quash the indictment and a plea in abatement were overruled. A jury was obtained in two hours, although it was expected that it would take much longer.

Sheriff Bogan, of Anson counay, was the principal witness for the State. His examination in chief was finished before the court adjourned.

Sheriff Bogan, who is also jailor for Anson county, positively identified the prisoner as one of the men who broke in the jail and took the prisoner out and hanged him. After telling about a mob forcing the door of the jail and entering it, securing the keeper and taking the prisoner from the cell, the witness was asked: "Did you recognize any one in the crowd?"

"Yes sir, I saw John Jones."

The court: "Tell what you saw Jones do."

"He was standing in the yard with a gun in his hands, near the man who had fired at me."

"Did you see him afterwards,"

"Yes, in the jail where he was when Johnson was taken from the cell."

"Was Jones disguised?"

"No sir."

"How long have you known him?"

"A number of years."

"Where did he live with reference to where Johnson lived?"

"He lived about half a mile from Johnson."

"Did you recognize any one else?"

"I recognized 'Little' Henry Kendall, W. C. Dunn and Tom Johnson."

"Any one else?"

"Yes, Zeke Lewis."

"What became of John Jones when the crowd carried Johnson from the jail?"

"I didn't see him after the crowd left. They all went away together."

All the men mentioned by the sheriff as having been seen in the jail are under indictment together with Jones.

Miss Alice Bogan, a daughter of the sheriff, was the first witness. Her testimony, so far as it went, was the same as that of her father.

ATTACK ON GREEKS AT ROANOKE

Complaint Made to State Department at Washington.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 15.—I Maximos, acting consul general of Greece, at New York, today made representations to Secretary of State Root at Washington protesting against the action of the mob at Roanoke on Saturday night when several Greek restaurants and places of business were wrecked during the progress of a riot and asking that the Greeks be given the fullest possible protection of the law. A telegram was received at the consulate here today from Roanoke signed by one hundred and fifty Greeks, appealing for protection against a mob of rioters. The Greeks telegraphed that the Roanoke police were unable to cope with the situation and afford them protection from rioters.

Washington, July 15.—The State Department today received a telegram from Acting Greek Consul General Maximos at New York, transmitting a report of the rioting at Roanoke, Saturday night, involving an attack upon nine Greek places there and invoking the protection of the State Department. The message was immediately transmitted by the State Department to Governor Swanson at Richmond with the request for a report on the subject. The governor's reply reached the Department at the closing hour and was of a most reassuring character. He expresses full confidence in the ability of the Roanoke municipal authorities to maintain order and promises that in any event he, himself, will look after the safety of the Greeks in that city. He promises to make a detailed report to the State Department as soon as he can secure the information which he is now seeking.

Richmond, Va., July 15.—Governor Swanson today communicated by long distance telephone with Mayor L. Cutchin, of Roanoke, to inquire as to the present state of affairs in that city after Saturday night's rioting. Mayor Cutchin reported all quiet. The governor instructed the Mayor that should rioting begin again, and there was any need of State aid, to telegraph at once. He said that peace must be kept and that the State would be prepared to enforce it.

Roanoke, Va., July 15.—There have been no further arrests of alleged members of the mob which Saturday night wrecked the Greek restaurants and shoe shine parlors. Four men arrested Saturday night are still in jail. They will be arraigned on Thursday.

Judge John Woods, of the corporation court, today ordered a special grand jury to meet tomorrow to investigate the affair thoroughly. The penalty in this State for rioting, or damaging a building, is from 2 to 5 years in the penitentiary. Both branches of the city council will meet in extraordinary session tomorrow night for the purpose of considering what course to take in the matter.

Last night the Greek colony, numbering more than a hundred people, stayed in a large room over one of the wrecked restaurants on Jefferson street. They were not molested. Today the proprietors of the restaurants and their employes have gone about the streets without hindrance. None of the places has re-opened. Last night the police force and the chain gang guards were kept on duty until a late hour, but nothing unusual transpired.

KENTUCKY NIGHT RAIDERS.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 15.—News reached here today that a band of between 20 and 40 "night riders" visited the farm of J. W. Barefield in Trigg county, Saturday night, fired a number of shots at the house and took Mr. Barefield into the woods where it is reported he was roughly dealt with. Barefield is a strong non-association man and has been warned to join or suffer the consequences. Some time ago his tobacco was taken from the barn and thrown into a pond.
